

ANTWANA WADLINGTON

Web Development Student at
General Assembly

📞 202-316-6764

@ antwana.wadlington@gmail.com

🔗 <https://antwana.github.io/>

📍 Washington D.C. Metro Area

EXPERIENCE

WDI Student

General Assembly

📅 05/2017 - 07/2017 📍 Washington, DC

- Completed a Web Development Immersive course establishing a fluency with javascript, Ruby and Angular
- Built 3 individual projects and 1 group project which showcased skills learned throughout the course
- Collaborated with team to create a dynamic and interactive web application

Senior Records Specialist

Crowell & Moring

📅 10/2004 - 03/2017 📍 Washington, DC

- Supervised a team of three people to coordinate proper preparation and destruction of legal documents
- Managed maintenance of law department records in accordance with legal guidelines and records management policies and procedures
- Formed and implemented a plan for the restructuring of case rooms and filing areas
- Assisted with resolving off-site storage bill from vendor by confirming that our internal and external clients were billed the appropriate amount
- Responded to requests from internal and external clients regarding any matters that needed to be resolved, such as, the review and delivery of physical and electronic records, or the research of client records that were vital to a case

EDUCATION

Web Development Immersive

General Assembly

📅 05/2017 - 07/2017

TECHNOLOGIES

Front End

Javascript

Angular

HTML & CSS

ReactJS

Backend

Rails

NodeJS

Sinatra

Ruby

PROJECTS

Fetch

📍 General Assembly

- Group project using Angular JS and Rails
- A web application that connects pet owners and pet sitters
- Owners and Sitters can filter by zip code, type of pet and medical needs

Travel Logs

📍 General Assembly

- Blogging site created using Ruby on rails
- A site where travelers can blog about their travels. They can write a short description and also add a photo